SEPARATE WALKING SKIRTS

The average dressmaker can't make the new plain skirt That's a fact. She hasn't the knowledge. She hasn't the art. Skirt making is an art. The t.liors who design these skirts of ours—cheap skirts tho' they be—get salaries of several thousand dollars a year. We have two hundred of these skirts in Crash, Coverts and Denims, which we have marked at a price which will send them flying out our door. ..... 50 cents each.

CAME IN ABREAST.

The tugs Fearless and Eleu each with a vessel in tow entered the harb a yesterday abreast of each other. It was rather a novel sight to see one of Spreckels' vessels in tow of a rival The Eleu got the first news of the arrival of the Flint and Mauna Ala and she had taken the Mauna Ala in tow when the Fearless got the news. The Flint was in need of a tug, however, and the Fearless took Then a race for the channel started. The Eleu was way in the lead and the Fearless soon began to When the channel catch up. mouth was reached there was a great tooting of whistles as the tugs signalied to each other. They entered the channel together and the doctor boarded the Mauna Ala first so the Fearless and her tow had to slow down and wait. Both the Flint and Mauna Ala had rough trips down. Captain Smith of the latter vessel says that for ten ivs there were southerly companied by thunder and lightning and high westerly seas.

The Mauna Ala made the run from San Francisco in 20 days and the Flint in two days less. Neither vessel saw anything of the bark Olympic which is now out 27 days. DESKS.
